To whom it may concern:

The goal of Able Coffee Roasters, as a chef-turned-Education Specialist and a Behavior Therapist-turned-business owner, is to create paying jobs for individuals with disabilities. We are aiming to break all the limitations in ways that no one has seen before and are confident that each individual is capable of being a functional part of society. According to the Bureau of Labor Statistics the unemployment rate for individuals with special needs is over 80% and employment opportunities are limited after the age of 22. A common concern of parents and educators is the lack of jobs for students who are done with secondary schooling around the age of 22. THAT is the motivation and builds Able Coffee Roasters passion to create a brand and quality products.

The Able Coffee Cart Program allows you to tell a story proving that individuals with disabilities are truly ABLE and there is a job for everyone! The coffee cart has allowed students and others with disabilities to learn from the ground up how to run an effective coffee cart including preparation, sales, and service. Students have learned vocational skills and a trade that will allow them to carry over their skills into other job opportunities. Students have gained in their expressive language skills, teamwork skills, following directions, having a positive attitude at the workplace, and excellent customer service skills. Currently the ACR coffee cart program is in 10+ school districts and over 50+ classrooms. The profits made are kept for reordering coffee and other school related activities or social events.

Able Roasters Coffee makes the purchase of their coffee carts easy to purchase, individualized for schools and the products come in a package ready to assemble at $1,100/per cart.
